count of 2 to 2, and the second, 2 to 1.

Richmond baseball fans have waited many moons for two such contests as were staged by the Indians and Goobers, for the tilts yesterday were replete with tense moments and the spectacular.

Grouety, the visiting shortstop, who thrilled the grandstand time again by his seemingly miraculous fielding, can be held responsible for starting the trouble that lost the opening tilt for his team. He made a bad throw to first on Daughton's fly in the ninth, when the score stood even. Daughton advanced on Moran's out, went to third on Hill's hit toward left, and then after Larrisey had deliberately walked Pay, Gus Hill smashed a hard blow at Second Baseman McConnell, who was playing in for a bunt, and Daughton Scored the winning tally. Some will duestion Larrisey strategy in passing Pay, as Hill has the reputation of being dangerous in the pinches and certainly maintained that reputation yesterday.

Unglaub's Downfall in Ninth. Unglaub's downfall also came in the minth round of the second battle, after Fetersburg had scored in the third and Richmond in the fifth. Abbott, playing short in place of Brown whose arm was hurt when he was hit by a pitched ball in the third inning, started this final stanza by singling past third. He was cut off at second on Anderson's fielder's choice, Unglaub to McConnell, but Anderson pilfered second, Daughton fanned, and Moran made himself a double far into center field which brought the contest to a close.

In There was a plentiful supply of good pitching. Bender opposed Larrisey in the opener and the Big Chief kept the seven hits garnered by the visitors well scattered, while the Indians succeeded in getting but three infield singles off the visiting spitbalier. The Goobers also got seven hits off Magalis, 'Jut never could they co lect enough to rout the left hander, while the Indians made their six hits off Unglaub count Visitors Score in Fire. The opener the visitors succeeded in scoring in the first inning, when Wood, first man up, hit through Anderson, was sacrificed by McConneil. The Indians were unable to come back until the second inning, when a double squeeze, the first of the season, was successfully operated. Moran beat out a hit to Cashion at first, and was sacrificed by Poole. Both dropped Pay's fly and Moran advanced to third. Fay stealing a few seconds later. Then Hill laid down a ten-foot bunt, and while Parker was throwing to first Moran crossed the plate and Pay followed him so swiftly that he counted before a play could be made on him. Score 2 to 1.

Petersburg tied up the count in the seventi, when, with two out, Cashion singled to left, went to second on a passed ball and crossed the rubber on Parker's single to center field.

But the Indians refused to have the same go into extra innings, and in the field out. Poole hit to short, the passed ball and crossed the rubber on Parker's single to center field.

Tetersburg scored the first run in the second game in their third time at bat, when Magalis walked Unglaub, who was sacrificed to second by Wood and scored when McConnell hit to center, Daughton fumbling the bail long enough to allow Unglaub to beat the throw to the plate.

The Indians evened up in the fifth. Poole singled-over first, Pay landed on first safely through Grouety's error and Hill and Meyers lofted sacrifice flies which brought Poole home.

The two teams thereafter displayed some real fighting spirit. It appeared dangerous for Magalis in the fourth the Hinkey and went to third on a wild blich, but Cashion popped up to Pay and Parker went out, Magalis to Poole Again in the eighth the visitors threat-oned when with two down Magalis walked McConnell, who advanced on another wild pitch, and went to third on Hiller's single to center. Doughton ran in on the short hit and kept McConnell from scoring. Then Grouety went out, Poole unassisted closing the inning.

The Goobers looked like serious trouinning.

The Goobers looked like serious trouble in their half of the ninth when with one down Hinkey singled to left and stole second. Cashion then whifed, but Parker hit through the box and Pay's peg nailed Hinkey at the plate. The already recited Indian half then occurred, and Moran's double put the double-header on ice intact.

Middlen' Backfield Shattered by Lone of Stars and New Combination to Be Developed.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., July 26 .- Coach Gilmour Dobie, who will have charge of the Naval Academy football team next season, fully recognizes that he has a difficult task before him in building up a backfield, every regular member of his direct attack having been lost to him this season. It will be no easy task to replace a backfield, probably the best in the country last season, without such men as Ingram, Butler and Roberts, and even Orr, a fourth classman last year, who has resigned, completing the wreck.

In spite of serious losses of line men also, a strong aggregation of forwards can be outlined already. The regular linemen who graduated are: Arthur, center, Perry, guard, and Scaffe, tackle. Perry will be missed particularly on account of his punting. However, excellent men are in sight for all the positions except one guard. Foster and Larson, both of whom have played the PHILLADELPHIA, July 26.—Philadelphia winning the first, 2 to 6, mainly through the excellent faiching of Meadows, and losing the second, 11 to 5. Meadows allowed only four hits and given sensational support. This was his straight victory since joining the philates. Rixey and Murray were hit hard in the second game, Brooklyn getting sixteen hits for twenty-one bases. Myers was the star, with three doubles.

Scores: material. Clark, Benoist, Severn, Raw-lings. Alvord, and Rodes. All of these are good men, and were used in por-tions of games last season, so they are not without experience. It is thought that one or more of them will develop into high-grade backs during the com-ize season under Dobie's coaching. Aivord and Severn, both active young fellows weighing in the neighborhood of 170 pounds each, are the most prom-ising.

fBy Associated Press.] CHICAGO, July 26.—Ty Cobb's drive for the 1919 batting championship is this afternoon with Newport under way. The Detroit star, accord-Gullman was opposed in the first by Harris in the box, and the latter had the advantage all through the game. In the second spasm the fans sat through another tragedy and saw Eckert pitch a good game and lose through misplays and errors. Alien, for the visitors, starred at the bat, bringing in runs in each game.

The Georgian batted his way from third place within a week. The averages include games of Wednesday.

George Sisier, the St. Louis first baseman, also is attacking the average with a vengeance. Sisier was sixth in the list of hitters a week ago. Today finds him tied for second place with Joe Jackson, of Chicago, with an opoints behind.
